

DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING SERVICE CENTER
ROCK PROGRAM
RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF PARENTS AND DHHSC SERVICE PROVIDER

Responsibilities and rights of the parents:

1. I agree to be present for all ROCK sessions, or contact my Service Provider one (1) day in advance if I am unable to come to a ROCK session, except in case of sudden illness or emergencies.
2. I agree to actively participate in the ROCK sessions.
3. I agree to practice what I learn in the sessions with my child(ren).
4. I agree to inform the Service Provider if I am not satisfied in any way with the services received.
5. I agree to commit to providing honest and accurate information to the Service Provider to the best of my ability and knowledge.
6. I am entitled to a safe, confidential environment. Everything said here remains here. (Exceptions: Staff is required by law to report to the proper authorities if you plan to harm yourself or someone else or if child or adult abuse is suspected).
7. I am entitled to be treated with respect, receive appropriate services and equal communication access.

Responsibilities of the Service Provider:

1. I agree to show up for all ROCK sessions, or contact my client one (1) day in advance if I am unable to come to a ROCK session, except in case of sudden illness or emergencies.
2. I agree to bring materials needed to teach ASL in ROCK sessions.
3. I agree to communicate/educate in a manner consistent with the communication/learning style of the client.
4. I agree to assist parents in connecting with additional support, whether from DHHSC or elsewhere, such as parental support groups.
5. I agree to maintain contact with other DHHSC Service Providers and Community Services as outlined on the signed Release of Confidential Information forms in order to fulfill the goals on the Service Agreement Plan.
6. I agree to be a point of contact for any assigned volunteers and to ensure they provide services according to the curriculum.

You have the ultimate responsibility for your own actions and choices. The Service Provider is here to assist you in communicating and connecting with your child more effectively. Your success will largely depend on how much effort you put into your desire to learn to communicate with your child.

DHHSC staff has explained/I have read and agreed to my rights and responsibilities as a DHHSC client as they are written.

Client Signature

Date

Service Provider Signature

Date

DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING SERVICE CENTER

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

All individuals receiving services at any Deaf and Hard of Hearing Service Center (DHHSC) facilities and/or events are expected to utilize services and programs available using appropriate manners and acceptable behavior.

The following rules are examples of behaviors that are deemed unacceptable:

- Excessive use of foul language or words that is demeaning, intimidating, or offensive to other people.
- Evidence or the appearance of use of alcohol or illegal drugs that negatively influence the individual's ability to receive services.
- Evidence or expressed intent to destroy, damage, or steal DHHSC property and/or materials.
- Ongoing conflicts, obsessions, or harassment of DHHSC staff, clients, and volunteers.
- Inappropriate sexual behavior (verbal/signed or physical) towards a DHHSC employee or other individuals at DHHSC.
- Sale of drugs and/or fighting (physical or verbal/signed) at DHHSC events.
- Delivery of a direct or implied threat to DHHSC staff, clients, or volunteers.
- Statements that show intent or implied intent to harm self or others.
- Erratic, nervous, extreme, aggressive, or potentially violent behaviors.
- DHHSC is an alcohol/drug and smoke-free environment.
- DHHSC is also a scent-free environment. Please refrain from using perfumes and colognes.
- Shoes and shirt must be worn at all times.
- Smoking is not allowed on DHHSC premises or at DHHSC events. All smoking must be conducted at least 50 feet away from any entrance/exit doors.

If these rules are not respected at any time DHHSC reserves the right to refuse provision of services at that time and may possibly suspend or deny provision of future services and/or access to future programs and events.

In the event that any individual does not adhere to the above rules, DHHSC will ask the individual to immediately vacate the DHHSC facility and/or event. If the individual shows any resistance or chooses not to respect DHHSC's request to leave, we reserve the right to contact the police for assistance. In extreme cases where threats are considered "life or death", DHHSC reserves the right to: call the police for further assistance and to file any and all appropriate charges; initiate an emergency evacuation of the facilities; and to close the office for services if necessary.

DHHSC wants to serve you and appreciates your cooperation to help make our facilities and events a safe place for everyone.

DHHSC staff has explained/I have read and I understand my responsibility as a DHHSC client to follow the standards of conduct as they are written.

Client Signature

Date

Service Provider Signature

Date

If you have any questions or concerns about this policy please contact: Michelle Bronson, Executive Director

More on Reverse

DT: Y N

Revised: 2/19 JL